

Red Wines	Dessert/Apéritif Wines
House Cabernet Sauvignon Glass-$4.00 Bottle (750ml) -$13.00 House Merlot Glass -$4.00 Bottle (750ml) -$13.00 Dumas Station Cabernet Sauvignon 2003 Bottle (750ml) -$49.00 Inaugural release of Dumas Station, it shows hints of cherry, plum, and currants, with exceptionally subtle tannins and a smooth finish. Dumas Station Cabernet Sauvignon 2005 Bottle (750ml) -$44.00 Shows much more varietal character than the 2003 release. Waterbrook Melange Noir 2006 Bottle (750ml) -$19.00 Cinnamon, spice, and cherries with nuances of oak are welcomed into a bright palate of delicious rich berries, pepper, and chocolate, finishing with lively enthusiasm. Couvillion Cabernet Sauvignon 2004 Bottle (750ml) -$34.00 Couvillion's first vintage of their flagship wine, Cabernet Sauvignon, brings aromas of bing cherry, black plum, and spice. The wine is rich and robust, with silky textures and soft tannins. Well balanced and elegant. Couvillion Merlot 2006 Bottle (750ml) -$33.00 Columbia Valley hand chosen berries.	Sky River Sweet Mead Bottle (750ml) -$23.00 Nectar of the gods. Sky River Sweet Mead enjoys a lingering full honey body. The intricate notes of the flowers and fruits that prelude the making of the honey are richly represented. Reminiscent of a fine German Riesling. Canoe Ridge Vineyard Dry Rose Bottle (750ml) -$15.00 Made primarily from Horse Heaven Hills Cabernet Sauvignon. Strawberry &amp; peach fruit flavors with notes of toffee.
Sparkling Wine
Cook's Champagne Style Individual bottle (187 ml) Brut, -$4.00

More Red Wines

Louis Jadot Beaujolais Villages (France)

Bottle (750ml) - $16.50

A classic Beaujolais, it should pair well with any of our less spicy offerings.

White Wines

House Chardonnay

Glass - $4.00 Bottle (750ml) - $13.00

Covey Run Riesling

Glass - $4.00 Bottle (750ml) - $12.00

Covey Run's Riesling exudes a pleasing aroma of nectarines and peaches. Its sweetness and acidity are well balanced, leading to a fresh, medium-bodied finish.

Hogue Gewürztraminer

Bottle (750ml) - $12.00

Refreshing flavors of peach and apricot mingle with an ongoing citrus finish.

SuLei Cellars 2008 Roussanne

Bottle (750ml) - $25.00

This dry style Roussanne displays pretty notes of orange blossom and citrus followed by mouthwatering pineapple and Golden Delicious apples. Nuances of baking bread round out the crisp acidity and rich mouthfeel of this selection. The grapes are from the foothills of the Blue Mountains on the Oregon side of the Walla Walla AVA. It is 100% Roussanne. Fermented in stainless steel and aged on neutral French oak for about 3 months before bottling.

L'Ecole Fries Vineyard Sémillon

Bottle (750ml) - $27.00

This crisp and viscous wine shows its marvelous honey, peach, pear and apricot flavors, with spicy floral and honeysuckle aromas and hints of fresh fig, kiwi and apple on a lemon-zesty finish.

Waterbrook Pinot Gris 2007

Bottle (750ml) - $14.00

Fresh cut grass and tropical aromas fill the fragrant nose. Bright acidity with lemon zest, ripe mango and cantaloupe make your mouth water. A clean finish rounded out with a nice mineral and gooseberry flavors.

Couvillion Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Bottle (750ml) - $32.00

This wine expresses pear, pineapple, kiwi, and citrus aromas with a hint of floral notes.

Beer

Fat Tire

USA - $3.00

Beer Lao

Laos - $3.50

Saigon

Vietnam - $3.50

Tsingtao

China - $3.50

San Miguel Lager

Philippines - $3.50

Hard Apple Cider - Spire Mountain

Washington - $3.00

St Pauli Girl

Germany - $3.00

Skye Tucannon

Honey Wheat Ale

Dayton - $3.50

Skye Johnny Mac's Scottish Ale

Dayton - $3.50

Singha

Thailand - $3.50

Asahi Super Dry

Japan - $3.00

Sapporo Draft

Japan - $3.00

Paulaner Hefeweizen

Germany - $4.00